ABOUT DESHAWN

Deshawn Royale, a dancer, instructor, and choreographer, aims to train dancers to be knowledgeable and artistic movers.

With 7 years of teaching experience, including 3 years as the director of the hip-hop program at Colorado School of Dance, Royale has honed his skills in various dance styles, including ballet, contemporary, lyrical, majorette, pom, and street-styles/hip-hop.

Royale's training covers foundations, choreography, and movement quality, ensuring his students achieve their dance goals through hard work and dedication. After mentally and physically challenging classes, dancers leave inspired and ready to tackle any challenge.
